Welcome Letter from Executive Director Lynn Tang

It is with great pleasure and honor that we present the 2013 San Diego International Kids' Film Festival (SDIKFF) at the AMN Healthcare Theater and the Little Theater of San Diego State University from September 6th to 8th, 2013. The screenings and other events at this year's festival are, as always, promoting the idea of entertainment with education.

This year, attendees could choose to view over 40 unique films from 15 countries ranging from features to shorts, documentaries to animation, from the silly to the sublime; participate in industry panels and workshops, engaging film Q&A, hosted film receptions and galas, plus the real people action show "Screen Play Showcase".

This year is our 5th year to screen films from China at our festival. A privileged Chinese film delegation will attend the 2013 SDIKFF. This collaboration has proven to be an effective way for filmmaking communities to inspire and learn from each other. The high-quality Chinese family and children films have served as entertainment and education for our audience.

The SDIKFF provides a platform that allows for freely sharing your views and ideas with those who take part in the same ideals of entertainment and stimulation of all ages through cinematic stories.

On behalf of the SDIKFF committee, we thank you for being a part of our festival in the sunny San Diego. I sincerely thank for the sponsors, supporters, volunteers who make this event possible.

Greetings!

A huge welcome to all attendees of the 2013 San Diego International Kids' Film Festival! We're proud to host this year's festival and bring a wide range of cultures together to see what we all have in common as well as what makes our life experiences different.

Film is a universal language that transcends barriers of age and culture. The power of story and images can be immediately felt by both young and old, no matter what country you call home. And since we have all been kids at one time or another, we can easily relate to all of these films.

This weekend we celebrate this powerful art form, as well as what we all share in common when the lights dim and the show begins. I hope you will not only enjoy the films we have to share, but join us for our enjoyable social gatherings and educational panel presentations. See you there!
